Unit 5 Extension: Key

Sample responses:

Student B: Have you thought of anything for our holiday?

Student A: Yes, I've found a great holiday.

Student B: Where is it?

Student A: It's in Wales.

Student B: How long does it last?

Student A: Between one week and three months – we decide.

Student B: What are we going to do on the holiday?

Student A: Clean up beaches, fix walls and paths, and record information about wildlife.

Student B: Where are we going to stay?

Student A: In tents on campsites they have ready.

Student B: How much does it cost?

Student A: £25 a week for the food – that's all.

Student B: What's the food like?

Student A: They provide us with three meals a day.

Student B: Do we need to bring any equipment?

Student A: Just a tent to sleep in.

Student B: How do we get there?

Student A: We have to get a train or coach to Cardiff.

Then they'll take us to the beaches in a van.

Student B: Do we need any training?

Student A: They provide training.

Student B: How do we find out more?

Student A: By calling 0233 747209.

Student A: Have you found an eco-friendly holiday?

Student B: Yes, I've found a much better one.

Student A: Where's the holiday?

Student B: On a tropical island.

Student A: So how do we get there?

Student B: By plane, but it's the closest tropical island to the UK.

Student A: What's the food like there?

Student B: The hotel has its own farm, so all the meat, eggs, milk, fruit and vegetables come from there!

Student A: Where are we going to stay?

Student B: In luxury hotel rooms with a view of the beach.

Student A: How much does it cost?

Student B: Just £500 a week.

Student A: What can we do while we're there?

Student B: Sunbathe, walk in the forest, swim – just relax, basically.

Student A: Is it really eco-friendly?

Student B: Of course! Apart from the food, they produce their own electricity and reuse water for the gardens.

Student A: Is it a safe place to visit?

Student B: There hasn't been an earthquake for two years.

Student A: Are there any infectious diseases I need to worry about?

Student B: Just malaria, but all you need to do is take some pills.

Student A: Is there any way to get more information?

Student B: Yes, there's a website – www.greentropics.com.
