A night to remember

My sister, Daphne, got engaged recently. As it was a very important event for our family, we decided to throw a big party for her. We invited all her friends and family to make it a night everyone would always remember.

We hired a massive hall at a local hotel for the party. I knew it would be a very exciting night. When the guests began to arrive, everyone was wearing lovely clothes. The men wore smart suits and all the ladies wore beautiful dresses, but no-one looked as pretty as Daphne, who wore a fantastic blue dress.

It was a great night. There was lots of delicious food and drink, and the DJ played great music. We all spent the evening laughing and chatting and dancing. Everyone had a fabulous time.

It was a wonderful night and I didn't want it to end. But by the time it was over I was really tired. It was a wonderful celebration. I will never forget it.
