

Unit 11

Unit 11 Extension

Student A

- 1 You are interviewing your partner for a place on your 'Introduction to Screenwriting' course. Read the description of the course and the notes which follow. Use the notes to ask questions in order to find out if your partner is suitable for a place on the course.

Introduction to Screenwriting

Have you always wanted to be the next big Hollywood writer, or to work on your favourite soap opera, or create a new TV drama? Our screenwriting course will give the ambitious amateur the tools they need to succeed. Apply early, as places are limited.

- check name and age
- education – to what level? – qualifications?
- why screenwriting?
- what kind of screenwriting?
- experience in film / TV industry?
- greatest screenwriting ambition?
- candidate's character?
- free time activities?
- any questions?

You: First, let me check your name and age.

Student B: My name's ... and I'm ...

- 2 Tell your partner if you have accepted them on the 'Introduction to Screenwriting' course or not. Give reasons for your decision.
- 3 You are being interviewed for a place on a course taught by your partner. Read the description of the course and then answer your partner's questions. Think of one question to ask your partner about the course.

Investing in Stocks and Shares

This course has been designed for high achievers. Many of our graduates now have important positions in financial services. An excellent standard in mathematics and good knowledge of computing are both essential, and so is a desire to succeed.

Unit 11

Unit 11 Extension

Student B

- 1 You are being interviewed for a place on a course taught by your partner. Read the description of the course and then answer your partner's questions. Think of one question to ask your partner about the course.

Introduction to Screenwriting

Have you always wanted to be the next big Hollywood writer, or to work on your favourite soap opera, or create a new TV drama? Our screenwriting course will give the ambitious amateur the tools they need to succeed. Apply early, as places are limited.

- 2 You are interviewing your partner for a place on your 'Investing in Stocks and Shares' course. Read the description of the course and the notes which follow. Use the notes to ask questions in order to find out if your partner is suitable for a place on the course.

Investing in Stocks and Shares

This course has been designed for high achievers. Many of our graduates now have important positions in financial services. An excellent standard in mathematics and good knowledge of computing are both essential, and so is a desire to succeed.

- confirm name and date of birth
- general level of education?
- qualifications in mathematics?
- computer skills?
- experience with investing?
- if pass course – plans?
- personality?
- hobbies?
- why suitable?
- any questions?

You: First, can I confirm your name and date of birth?

Student B: My name's ... and I was born on ...

- 3 Tell your partner if you have accepted them on the 'Investing in Stocks and Shares' course or not. Give reasons for your decision.