

Unit 12

Unit 12 Revision

1 Circle the correct options to complete the text.

With a population of ¹ also / only 5.5 million inhabitants, Denmark is ² just / even a small nation, but when it comes to economic success and social welfare, the Danes really stand tall. Like most people in Europe, they pay high taxes, ³ only / even as much as 50% of their income. Life is not cheap in Denmark, either, as prices, ⁴ too / also, are quite high. So what is the secret of their success? For one thing, Denmark believes in free labour markets and healthy competition. Yet they see the importance of welfare ⁵ as well / only. The result is a state that adjusts and guides rather than controls the economy. ⁶ As well / Also, most of the tax paid is put back directly into the country – or rather into its people, which they consider their most valuable resource. ⁷ Even / Only this way, the Danes say, can a country begin to go forward.

2 Circle the correct option.

- 1 My father paid for the car repairs just / too.
- 2 As well, / Also, being on time is very important if you want to secure your job in our company.
- 3 I have too / just paid the rent for this month.
- 4 Tom also is / is also a hard-working businessman.
- 5 Stop laughing – it even isn't / isn't even funny.
- 6 She as well / only told me about her financial problems after I asked her twice.

3 Write sentences with the prompts. Use causative forms.

- 1 We / have / the bank employee / close / our account / earlier this morning
