

Opening and closing conversations

Student A

1 Work in pairs. Put the words in order to make conversational expressions. Which expressions open conversations and which expressions close conversations?

1 introduce / I / myself / May / ?

5 you / How / do / do / ?

2 stay / Let's / touch / in / .

6 card / my / Why / I / don't / you / give / ?

3 talking / It's / good / been / you / to / .

7 again / How / meeting / about / ?

4 pleased / meet / very / I'm / you / to / .

8 myself / Allow / to / me / introduce / .

2 You are at the Amazing Jobs convention. Choose a picture and think about how to describe your job, where you work and what you do. Then act out the conversation with your partner. Use expressions to open and close the conversation.

When you've finished, choose a different job and act out another conversation.

Opening and closing conversations

Student B

1 Work in pairs. Put the words in order to make conversational expressions. Which expressions open conversations and which expressions close conversations?

1 introduce / I / myself / May / ?

5 you / How / do / do / ?

2 stay / Let's / touch / in / .

6 card / my / Why / I / don't / you / give / ?

3 talking / It's / good / been / you / to / .

7 again / How / meeting / about / ?

4 pleased / meet / very / I'm / you / to / .

8 myself / Allow / to / me / introduce / .

2 You are at the Amazing Jobs convention. Choose a picture and think about how to describe your job, where you work and what you do. Then act out the conversation with your partner. Use expressions to open and close the conversation.

When you've finished, choose a different job and act out another conversation.