Basketball is a game that <sup>1</sup>anyone / someone can play. All that you <sup>2</sup>must / need to have is a ball and hoop. People play basketball <sup>3</sup>somewhere / everywhere that you go in the world: in parks, playgrounds, in the street. It is normally played with six players on each side, but you <sup>4</sup>can / can't play with only two or three people.

Also, the rules are very simple. I've never met <sup>5</sup>anyone / no one who didn't understand them. The two important rules are that you <sup>6</sup>mustn't / don't have to touch another player and that you <sup>7</sup>must / have to bounce the ball when you walk with it. I think you <sup>8</sup>must / should try it.
