Example answers

I hope all's well with you. I'm sorry not to have written for so long but, as you can imagine, I've been very busy since I got here. I had to get a flat and then get settled at work before I could think about other things.

Anyway, I've now got a place to live. It's an apartment in one of the oldest parts of Paris – near Montmartre – and it feels very French and very authentic. It has a spare room, so if you ever want to come and stay, just let me know. The only problem is that it's not very near the office. I have to get two different trains to get to work every day. The people in the office are nice, but the way of working feels very different. You can't get someone to do something without having a series of meetings and long discussions. I'm finding it pretty exhausting.

My plan is to give it six months and see if it gets any easier. Or if I become more French in my working habits! If it doesn't work out, I'll get a transfer back to the Netherlands. Do pass on my news to everyone there when you get this and give them my love. I'll write again soon.

I really recommend Van Gogh-Hiroshige exhibition, where you can compare the work of two great artists: Hiroshige, Japan's most famous painter and Van Gogh, one of Europe's best-known artists. The exhibition, which is on at the Pinothèque Gallery in Paris until March 7th, also shows how Japanese landscape painters of the 19th century influenced Impressionist painters like Van Gogh.

Speaking

Do speaking tasks in pairs and allow approximately four minutes per task (two minutes each). Give the tasks to the students five minutes before the interview to give them time to prepare.

Mark the students on their ability to speak clearly and accurately with a good pronunciation. Give extra marks for natural expression and a good range of vocabulary.
