

Reacting to stories

Student A

1 Look at these words. Write expressions to use when you react to stories. Use How, What or That is/was with the words. Check your answers with your partner.

awful awkward a disaster embarrassing good thinking lucky
a nightmare odd strange a stroke of luck

2 Work in pairs. Take turns to play Paula and her husband. Use the pictures to prepare a conversation. Include phrases people use when reacting to stories, and add information to describe Paula's experiences. Then act out the conversation.

Reacting to stories

Student B

1 Look at these words. Write expressions to use when you react to stories. Use How, What or That is/was with the words. Check your answers with your partner.

awful awkward a disaster embarrassing good thinking lucky
a nightmare odd strange a stroke of luck

2 Work in pairs. Take turns to play Paula and her husband. Use the pictures to prepare a conversation. Include phrases people use when reacting to stories, and add information to describe Paula's experiences. Then act out the conversation.